

Bee Schools

You can learn how to keep honey bees, and enjoy harvesting your own honey and beeswax! There is a lot to learn about keeping bees and the best way is to attend a local bee school in your area. Look below for a Bee School that is being run by a beekeeping club near you...

Barnstable County

Information about this school is available at the Barnstable County Beekeepers Association web site.

Bristol County

Information about this school is available at the Bristol County Beekeepers Association web site.

Essex County

Information about this school is available at the Essex County Beekeepers Association web site.

Hampden County

Information about this school is available at the Hampden County Beekeepers Association web site.

Middlesex County

Information about this school is available at the Middlesex County Beekeepers Association web site

Norfolk County

Information about this school is available at the Norfolk County Beekeepers Association web site.

Plymouth County

Information about this school is available at the Plymouth County Beekeepers Association web site.

Worcester County

Information about this school is available at the Worcester County Beekeepers Association web site.